PROFILE

Seeking my first professional SOC / Blue Team role. I combine hands-on defensive training in Splunk/SPL, TryHackMe and Security Blue Team with administration, IT support and customer operations. My public projects demonstrate source-backed CTI, Linux, containers, reproducibility and clear technical documentation. CyberDailyLog is my main defensive project; homelab operational validation is still in progress. Projects and guided labs are not professional SOC employment. Native English and Spanish communicator, used to careful records and operational pressure.

RELEVANT CYBERSECURITY EVIDENCE

- TryHackMe profile JimBLogic: public hands-on learning evidence; ranking and activity change over time.
- Completed TryHackMe paths/certificates: Love at First Breach, Cyber Security 101, Pre Security and Advent of Cyber 2025.
- Splunk / Hack The Box labs: investigated security incidents using log sources, fields and SPL searches aligned with adversary behavior and abnormal activity patterns.
- Blue Team training coverage: digital forensics, network analysis, OSINT, threat hunting, vulnerability management, chain of custody and evidence handling.
- AWS AIF-C01: first attempt completed 29 September 2026; targeted study before a retake. CLF-C02: preparing. Neither AWS certification is earned; Skill Builder / SimuLearn badges are training evidence.
